Notes for Winifred Craven:

This marriage is admittedly a guess, based on family lore that says Charles Craven came to NZ following cousins, "possibly Winnie Roberts" said later generations. We know that Charles' second cousins Alfred and Ramoth Craven came in 1905 and 1903 and Ramoth had a daughter named Winifred. Winifred Craven was found in voter rolls through 1938 and then there is one registry for Winifred Roberts 1938, no Winifre Roberts on 1935. So I am guessing that Winnie married between 1935 and 1938.

Lawrence Harper Roberts is the only candidate I see if we believe she married a man named Roberts. After 1938, the two of them disappeared from Electoral rolls,
